

OSBORNE CAN'T SEE JURY MINUTES TILL HE PLEADS

Judge Morschauser Refuses the Request of Ex-Warden's Counsel.

(Special to The Evening World.)

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., Jan. 14.—George Gordon Battle and Huntington W. Merchant, who appeared today in the Supreme Court on a motion to secure a copy of the minutes of the Grand Jury on which was founded the two indictments against former Warden Thomas Mott Osborne of Sing Sing Prison, met with a setback, as Justice Morschauser said he would not grant the motion until Mr. Osborne has pleaded to one of the indictments.

"It has been the universal practice for a defendant to plead first," said Justice Morschauser, "and I think that is what Mr. Osborne should do. Then I will entertain your motion for an inspection of the Grand Jury minutes. Nobody can be hurt by following that practice."

Mr. Battle, although he agreed with the finding of Judge Morschauser, said that he thought there would be no trouble in getting the minutes. "I want to get them as soon as I can," continued Mr. Battle, "to assist the District Attorney in getting to trial right away. I want to have these indictments disposed of as soon as possible," he added. The lawyers for Mr. Osborne, District Attorney Weeks and Assistant District Attorney Fallon first appeared before Justice Addison J. Young in Part I, where Mr. Fallon told the Court that he was there to have Mr. Osborne plead to an indictment charging him with perjury. "He is not here," added Mr. Fallon.

Mr. Battle said that Mr. Osborne had made arrangements some time ago to go to Auburn and therefore he could not be in court to-day.

"But this day was fixed in accordance with Mr. Battle's agreement," said Mr. Fallon.

"That is quite right," said Mr. Battle.

"I will send it to Judge Morschauser," said Justice Young, "to fix a time on Monday for trial."

Then the attorneys and prosecutor marched to Part 3 and appeared before Justice Morschauser, where it was agreed to have Mr. Osborne appear on Monday morning. It is understood that he will plead not guilty to the indictment for perjury.

"Will Mr. Osborne be here surely on Monday?" Mr. Battle was asked.

"He surely will," was the reply, "he is anxious to plead and go to trial."

It is said that as soon as the ex-Warden pleads the Grand Jury minutes will be given to him by Judge Morschauser.

The Grand Jury which has been investigating Sing Sing has adjourned until Jan. 24, but when it reconvenes they will, it is reported, take up the investigation of the escape of Jean Klobner, a long time prisoner, who fled on Wednesday, and the suicide of Angelo Leggio, a murderer, condemned to death, who hanged himself yesterday.

SUPPRESSES MAGAZINE.

Anti-Vice Crusader Raids Publishing Office—Three Arrested.

A reminder of Anthony Comstock's anti-vice crusades was sounded to-day in the Yorkville Court when the publisher, the editor and the advertising manager of a monthly magazine were arraigned before Magistrate Nolan, charged with printing improper stories, and were held in $100 bail each. The charges were preferred by John S. Sumner, Comstock's successor as director of the Society for the Suppression of Vice, who confiscated 1,068 copies of the February number of the magazine when the three men were arrested at night at their offices, No. 331 Fourth Avenue.

The defendants were Eltinge F. Warner, thirty-four years old, of No. 14 East Fifty-fifth Street, publisher; E. W. Hoar, twenty years old, of No. 401 Riverside Drive, editor; and Irving T. Meyers, thirty-one years old, of Pelham Manor, advertising manager.

Mr. Sumner says he will prosecute newsmen who sell the magazine while the cases against its managers are pending. The hearing was adjourned to Jan. 20.

SCHOOLBOY SHOT IN STREET.

Brooklyn Police Seeking Mysterious Owner of Rifle.

Seven-year-old Amanda Vardohella was crossing the street from his home,

No. 7108 Fifteenth Avenue, Brooklyn, to Public School No. 113 this morning when a bullet struck him in the back of the neck. No one heard the shot fired nor saw anybody in the neighborhood with a weapon. Dr. Menach came with the ambulance from the Coney Island Hospital and took the little fellow back with him to probe for the bullet.

Capt. O'Connor of the Bath Street Station and several detectives from the Sixth Branch Bureau are searching for the person who fired the shot.

"Coffee Don't Hurt Me"

Can he get away with it?

The drug, caffeine, in coffee, about 2½ grains to the average cup, hurts many coffee drinkers, at some time of life, and often hurts them hard.

Caffeine is a powerful irritant that unsteadies the nerves, races the heart, disorganizes the digestive organs and plays havoc with the health of a large proportion of coffee users.

Of course, there are some who go on drinking coffee for years, without apparent harm, at least they don't suspect it, until the cumulative drug, caffeine, has got in its work. Isn't it the best plan to play safe with health—quit coffee and use

INSTANT POSTUM

This pure food-drink made of wheat and a small portion of molasses tastes much like mild, high-grade Java coffee, yet contains no drug or other harmful element.

Postum comes in two forms: the original Postum Cereal, must be well-boiled, 15c and 25c packages; Instant Postum, the soluble form, can be made in the cup, at table, by adding hot water, 30c and 50c tins. Both kinds are equally delicious and the cost per cup is about the same.

The better health that follows quitting coffee has shown thousands

Saves Expenses and Lives Home-Made Cough Syrup.

An item like labelled cough syrup costs the people several million dollars a year. Every item the housewife can save on is worth while, so that this home-made, reliable, laxative cough and cold medicine will be welcomed by thousands who have never tried it. Many hundreds right in this community already know its worth, according to a well-known druggist.

Buy at the drug store a 2½-ounce package of Essence Mentha Laxans, a concentrated fluid; empty it into a pint bottle. Then make a syrup by pouring a half pint of boiling water into a pint of granulated sugar, stir, cool and fill up the bottle with syrup. Pull directions and dosage are contained in each package. A saving of $2.00 to $3.00 is effected, and it cures any curable cough. Contains no opiates or poisons.—Adv.

Embarrassing Hairs Can Be Quickly Removed

(Beauty Culture)

Hairs can be easily banished from the skin by this quick, painless method: Mix into a stiff paste some powdered delatone and water, spread on hairy surface and in 2 or 3 minutes rub off, wash the skin and it will be free from hair or blemish. Excepting in very stubborn growths, one application is sufficient. To avoid disappointment, buy the delatone in an original package.—Adv.

No Extra Charge for It.
